Cut All Funding To The Arts

He identifies the track's most striking feature as "its mysterious and poetic approach to serious topics that come together in a larger, direct message to its listeners, an embodiment of the central ideal for which the Beatles stood: that a truly meaningful life can be had only when one is aware of one's self and one's surroundings and overcomes the status quo. Are you in school.

L: Book I

If art, being creative, is necessarily a variation, a falsifying of experience, it would seem at first sight that the art of Parnassus should have been the more averse from the bare notation of experience, original or second-hand, as the formal and logical conditions it laid down were more stringent and complex and its material more recondite.
